

Target group

Seafarers employed or engaged in any capacity on board a ship which is required to comply with the provisions of the ISPS Code on the business of that ship as part of the ship's complement without designated security duties.

Objectives of the Course

Those who successfully complete this course should be able:

- Contribute the enhancement of maritime security through heightened awareness;
- Recognize security threats;
- Understand the need for and methods of maintaining security awareness and vigilance.

Approval

The course complies with all requirements of the STCW Convention Chapter VI, Sections A-VI/6 and Table A-VI/6-1 of the SCTW Code. The course is certified by Latvian Maritime Administration.

Duration of the training course

The duration of the Ship Security Officer training course is 1/2 working day.

Course contents

The course covers the following topics:

- Introduction;
- Maritime security policy;
- Security responsibilities;
- Threat Identification, Recognition, and Response;
- Ship Security Actions;
- Contingency planning, drills and exercises.

Income requirements

To be assigned on Security-awareness Training Course the participant should present national passport and seaman's book.

Training approaches

During training course theoretical lessons are given using PowerPoint presentations.